

A close-up, slightly blurred image of a wolf's eye, showing the texture of its fur and the intensity of its gaze. The eye is a golden-brown color, and the surrounding fur is a mix of grey, brown, and white.

RCE Honors English 1 Summer Reading: Jack London's The Call of the Wild

Dear Prospective Honors English I Student:

We are very excited about Honors English I at Edwards Middle School and the prospect of having you in our classes!

As an Honors English I student, it is highly recommended that you read Jack London's The Call of the Wild over the summer. We will start the school year with an in-depth unit concerning the three levels of meaning in the novel.

Assignment:

Read The Call of the Wild by Jack London.

Procedure:

You will need to locate your own copy of the book to read over the summer. You may purchase a copy, check it out of a local library, or read it online at: <https://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/215>

Contacts:

If you have any questions, you may contact Mr. Chandler or Ms. Ellenburg via email:

williamchandler@pickens.k12.sc.us

kendraellenburg@pickens.k12.sc.us

During the summer please allow up to one week for a response.
